

Leslie Paul, 219 E. 62 St., New York City, graduate of Radcliffe, is an actress, played on tour in 1945-46 with "Late George Apley" Co., and with the South Shore Players, Cohasset, Mass., summer 1946; director Inter-School Production "Our Town", 1947.

Lorna Pearson, 288 Piermont Ave., Nyack, N. Y., learning to be a metal craftsman at School for American Craftsmen, Alfred University.

Mardi Peterson, 1273 E. 2 St., Long Beach, Cal., attended University of Hawaii in 1941-42, University of Mexico, 1942-43, then travelled in Chile and Argentina, 1946-47.

George M. Randall, 1850 Leimert Blvd., Oakland, Cal., personnel specialist, Standard Oil Company of California.

Harold B. Raymond, 94 Cedar Park, Melrose, Mass., expected to get his M.A. at Harvard Graduate School this fall, when he sent in questionnaire in July.

Mark Schindler, 837 N. Kings Road, Los Angeles, Cal., is physics assistant at University of Southern California, and doing graduate work in physics. Married.

Richard Sherman, 119 E. 84 St., New York City, student at the New School for Social Research.

Morton J. Steinau, 823 Morgan Ave., Palmyra, N. J., works for TIME, Inc. as traffic manager, eastern seaboard of U. S.; married to Barbara Hill, two children.

Bacia R. Stepner, 1016 Nelson Ave., New York City, attending Alfred University, studying ceramics.

Jane Robinson Stone, 539 Hudson St., New York City, married, one child; (husband, Fred) (who hasn't submitted his questionnaire as yet).

Suzanne Teasdale, 20 N. Kingshighway, St. Louis, Mo., attending Washington University, St. Louis, visited BMC during the Christmas holidays.

Phyllis Josephs Thomas, 4678 La Mirada Ave., Los Angeles, Cal., housewife, one child, assistant to photographer husband.

John A. Urbain, 1022 Clinton St., Philadelphia, art director, N. W. Ayers